

Brief description of the installation process for the proposed safety rails below:

- 1). The stanchion/safety rails base plate will be anchored to the floor using 10mm Coach screws with plastic plugs in a 12mm drilled hole.
- 2). This is not a permanent structure and it will have minimal impact on the built structure as the rails can easily be removed and the small holes sealed with cement mortar.