Ministry donates R300 000 for education development

Silas Nduvheni

THE Managing Director of Reis Insurance Brokers, Bishop David Mureri, through David Mureri Giving Ministries, donated R300 000 to the Vhembe District Education Department towards the development of various sporting codes.

The sponsorship will run over three years, starting in 2019 with an amount of R100 000 going towards the Vhembe School to School Sports and Arts Project. The aim of the sponsorship is to see learners participating in various activities such as soccer, drama, chess and poetry among others. Bishop Mureri, who has 36 years' experience in the insurance industry, said his relationship with the Vhembe District education circuit started in 2004 when he sponsored the Gr 12 Excellence Awards, which reward hard working learners who passed Gr 12 with flying colours.

Mureri said things changed in 2016 with partnership between the department and the University of Venda (Univen) when 100 schools were trained in the School to School Sports and Arts Project.

"I believe in giving because if you give to those in need, God may give you more.

"Learners are our future leaders and if they are nurtured well, we will have good leaders in the future," said Mureri.

He was joined by Vhembe District East and West District Directors, Dr Gerson Rambiyana and Shumani Ravhuanzwo, principals and circuit managers last Friday at a ceremony held at Rewards Resort near Nandoni Dam, for the launch of the Vhembe School to School Sports and Arts Project.

Mbalavhali D and Jones Netshipise are the programme directors during the event.
