Van der Walt, J. September 2022. Heritage Impact Assessment For The Proposed New Residential Development - Chantelle Extension 35 (Portion 250 Of The Farm Hartebeesthoek 303 JR), City Of Tshwane Metropolitan Municipality, Gauteng Province

The proposed development entails a residential development and associated infrastructure.

The author notes that the project area is disturbed by infrastructure development illegal dumping of building material and household refuse. The study area further lacks any focal points that would have attracted human occupation in antiquity and is considered to be of low archaeological potential. This was confirmed during the field survey and no heritage resources of significance were noted.

The author recommends the implementation of a Chance Find Procedure for the project and monitoring by the Environmental Control Officer.

The SA Palaeontological Sensitivity Map indicates that the study area has Insignificant fossil sensitivity.

ceramics, bones, stone artefacts, ostrich eggshell fragments and charcoal/ash concentrations) or palaeontological remains are found during the proposed activities, SAHRA must be alerted immediately, and a professional archaeologist or palaeontologist, based on the nature of the finds, must be contacted as soon as possible to inspect the findings. If the newly discovered heritage resources prove to be of significance a Phase 2 rescue operation might be necessary.

If any unmarked human burials are uncovered and the archaeologist called in to inspect the finds and/or the police find them to be heritage graves, mitigation may be necessary and the SAHRA Burial Grounds and Graves (BGG) Unit must be contacted for processes to follow.

Should the project be granted Environmental Authorisation, SAHRA must be notified and all relevant documents submitted to the case on SAHRIS.
