Permit renewal

This letter serves to remind of the conditions under which you received a permit for the Waddingxveen shipwreck (SAHRIS Case ID. 555), due to expire on the 31 December 2014.

Your case was tagged in SAHRIS with a request for you to submit an annual progress report required under the terms of your permit. To date, however, no report has been received from you.

You are reminded that under your permit conditions you are required to submit a progress report on your activities on the site and to submit a final report detailing the results of your excavation on or before the 31 December 2014. All reports are to be uploaded to your case on SAHRIS and your case officer notified.

Please note, as stipulated in your permit conditions, if no satisfactory has been received issuing of future permits will be at risk.

We look forward to your response and receiving the report on your work on the Waddingxveen.

Should you have any further queries, please contact the designated official using the case number quoted above in the case header.

Yours faithfully
