

DECLARATION OF A NATIONAL MONUMENT

By virtue of the powers vested in me by section 10 (1) of the National Monuments Act, 1969 (Act 28 of 1969), I, Johannes Petrus van der Spuy, Minister of National Education, hereby declare Erf 602, King William's Town, with the historic Methodist manse thereon, to be a national monument.

Description

Certain piece of abolished quitrent land, being Erf 602, King William's Town, situate in the Borough of King William's Town, in the Division of King William's Town, and measuring as such 741 (seven hundred and forty-one) square metres. Deed of Transfer T1131/1974, dated 4 June 1974.

Historical and architectural interest

The old Methodist manse was built in approximately 1855. It is a simple, double-storeyed building with a corrugated iron roof and a wooden balcony which stretches from one side of the front facade to the other. Together with the neighbouring old Methodist church it forms an interesting architectural and historic group.
