
HISTORICAL INTEREST.

This site was one of the earliest centres of Christianity north of the Vaal River. It was visited by such early travellers as William Burchell, John Campbell, George Thompson, Dr. Andrew Smith, Dr. David Livingstone and others.

B. J. VORSTER,
Deputy-Minister of Education, Arts and Science.