NATIONAL MONUMENTS ACT, No. 28 OF 1969

DECLARATION OF THE HISTORIC PRESIDENT'S RESIDENCE AND OUTBUILDINGS AT POTCHEFSTROOM

By virtue of the powers vested in me by section 10 (1) of the National Monuments Act, 1969 (Act 28 of 1969), I, Teunis Nicolaas Hendrik Janson, Minister of National Education, hereby declare the historic President's Residence and outbuildings at Potchefstroom, as well as an area of surrounding land as described below, to be a national monument.

Description

A portion of the property known as Certain Portion 4 of Stand 2529, situate in the town of Potchefstroom, measuring 1,323 0 (one comma three two three zero) hectares, with this historic President's Residence, stable and smithy thereon, which is described by the following line: From the stand's north-eastern corner in a westerly direction along the stand's northern boundary to 5,5 m from the stand's western boundary; thence in a southerly direction, parallel to the stand's western boundary, for a distance of 120 m; thence, at right angles to the stand's western boundary, in an easterly direction to the stand's eastern boundary; thence along the stand's boundary in a northerly direction; thence in an easterly direction; and thence again in a northerly direction to the north-eastern corner of the stand.

Deed of Transfer 32617/1973, dated 26 September 1973 (paragraph 4).

Historical interest

Marthinus Wessel Pretorius, Commandant-General of Rustenburg and Potchefstroom (1853–1857), State President of the South African Republic (1857–1860 and 1864–1871), State President of the Republic of the Orange Free State (1860–1863) and member of the Triumvirate during the First War of Independence (1880–1881) had this house built for him in 1868. He lived in it for the greater part of his life and did not sell it until 1894.

T. N. H. JANSON, Minister of National Education.
