Certain piece of land, with the City Hall Complex thereon, being the eastern portion of Market Square (now known as Erf 5110), situate in the town of Johannesburg, in the District of Johannesburg (Transvaal), measuring one (1) morgen fifty-three (53) square roods.

Historical and architectural interest

The corner-stone of the City Hall Complex was laid on 29 November 1910 by the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn and the building was officially opened on 7 April 1915 by Govenor-General Lord Buxton. It was designed in a grandiose Edwardian Baroque style, and is a good example of the pomp expected of this type of building before the First World war. Stylistically it is strikingly counterbalanced by the adjoining Rissik Street Post Office. 10/2/716.
