PROCLAMATION OF A MONUMENT

By virtue of the powers vested in me by section 8 (1) (a) of the Natural and Historical Monuments, Relics and Antiques Act, 1934 (Act No. 4 of 1934), I, Johannes de Klerk, Minister of National Education, hereby proclaim the Primary School buildings, Groenberg, Wellington, with the site on which it is situated, to be a monument.

Description

Certain piece of perpetual quitrent land with the buildings thereon, being part of the place Welbedacht, situated in the division of the Paarl at Groenberg, measuring one morgen (Deed of Transfer 281/1868, dated 25 June 1868).

Historical Interest

The school was built in the sixties of the 19th century. C. P. Hoogenhout, who played an important part in the first phase of the Afrikaans Language Movement, was the teacher there from 3 August 1874 until the beginning of the 20th century. Much of his most important work was done there.
