

Appendix 1: Acknowledgements and Authorship

EcoAfrica acknowledges the tremendous inputs and support provided by READ officials, local stakeholders and other significant authorities involved in the TSWHS to date, without whose dedicated effort, the site would not be what it is today, holding immense potential for the future.

The details and experience of the independent impact assessors are as follows:

Dr Francois Odendaal: Project Leader

EcoAfrica Environmental Consultants (Pty) Ltd.

428 Farendon Street, Clydesdal

Tshwane, 0002

francois@ecoafrika.co.za

Francois has 30 years experience in environmental consulting in the fields of environmental and heritage management.

Mr Jonathan Kingwill: Impact Assessor

EcoAfrica Environmental Consultants (Pty) Ltd.

428 Farendon Street, Clydesdal

Tshwane, 0002

jonathan@ecoafrika.co.za

Jonathan has 15 years experience in environmental consulting and the field of impact assessment.

Ms Zimkhitha Raolane: Project Manager

EcoAfrica Environmental Consultants (Pty) Ltd.

428 Farendon Street, Clydesdal

Tshwane, 0002

zimkhitha@ecoafrika.co.za

Zimkhitha has 5 years experience in environmental consulting in the fields of environmental and heritage management and impact assessment.

The specialists contributing to the study include:

Dr David Morris

Archaeologist, McGregor Museum, Kimberley

dmorris@inext.co.za, 053 839 2706 (w), 082 222 4777 (m)

Dr Otsile Ntsoane

Cultural Heritage Specialist, Pretoria

kysheritage@gmail.com, 081 896 8615 (m)

Dr James Brink

Palaeontologist, National Museum, Bloemfontein

jbrink@nasmus.co.za, 0827891374 (m)