2) THE PHASE 1 ARCHAEOLOGICAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT

2.1) ARCHAEOLOGICAL LEGISLATIVE COMPLIANCE

The Phase 1 Archaeological Impact Assessment (AIA) was requested by the South African Heritage Resources Agency (SAHRA) mandatory responsible for the National Heritage Resources Act, Act No 25 of 1999 (NHRA 1999).

The Phase 1 AIA was requested as specialist sub-section to the Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) in compliance with requirements of the National Environmental Management Act, No 107 of 1998 (NEMA 1998) and associated regulations (2006), and the NHRA 1999 and associated regulations (2000).

The Phase 1 AIA aimed to locate, identify and assess the significance of cultural heritage resources, inclusive of archaeological deposits / sites, built structures older than 60 years, sites of cultural significance associated with oral histories, burial grounds and graves, graves of victims of conflict and cultural landscapes or views as defined and protected by the NHRA 1999, that may be affected by the proposed development. Palaeontological deposits / sites as defined and protected by the NHRA 1999 are not included as subject to this report.

2.2) COVERAGE AND GAP ANALYSIS

The Phase 1 AIA covered an approximate 38ha area (Fig 3: a-1) incorporating the proposed 19ha development area which will include of the planned construction of commercial offices, retail space and associated infrastructure to be located on Erf 9582, Sweetwaters, King Williams Town (Fig 4).

Access to the development area is via the R346 and smaller, existing tarmac and gravel roads primarily serving the existing neighboring developments.

2.3) METHODOLOGY

The Phase 1 AIA was conducted on 2008-05-08 by one archaeologist. The assessment was done by foot and off-road vehicle (200cc quad) and limited to a Phase 1 surface survey; no excavation or sub-surface testing was done. Visibility ranged from good to fair; a direct result of vegetation. Sub-surface interpretations were based on existing exposed sections. GPS co-ordinates were taken with a Garmin GPSmap 60CSx GPS (Datum: WGS84). Photographic documentation was done with a Pentax K10D camera. A combination of Garmap and Google Earth software was used in the display of spatial information

Archaeological and cultural heritage site significance assessment and associated mitigation recommendations were done according to the system prescribed by SAHRA (2007).

SITE SIGNIFICANCE	FIELD RATING	GRADE	RECOMMENDED MITIGATION
High Significance	National Significance	Grade 1	Site conservation / Site development
High Significance	Provincial Significance	Grade 2	Site conservation / Site development
High Significance	Local Significance	Grade 3A / 3B	Site conservation or extensive mitigation prior to development / destruction
High / Medium Significance	Generally Protected A	-	Site conservation or mitigation prior to development / destruction
Medium Significance	Generally Protected B	-	Site conservation or mitigation / test excavation / systematic sampling / monitoring prior to or during development / destruction
Low Significance	Generally Protected C	-	On-site sampling, monitoring or no archaeological mitigation required prior to or during development / destruction

2.4) PHASE 1 AIA ASSESSMENT FINDINGS

No archaeological or cultural heritage resources, as defined and protected by the NHRA 1999, were identified during the Phase 1 surface assessment of the proposed Erf 9582, Sweetwaters, development area. Surface anthropic sterility is echoed by sterile sub-surface sections. Inspected sections of varying nature, ranging from shallow erosion sections of less than 30cm to a test-pit of approximately 1m in depth, proved to be anthropically sterile. In addition stream bed sections and sub-surface material used to construct the dam wall in the north of the development area yielded no protected cultural material.

A number of contemporary cultural ‘findplaces’ were located. ‘Findplaces’ comprised of recent building debris including primarily bricks, cement and rusted wire. Contemporary ‘findplaces’ post-date 60 years of age; by implication not protected under the NHRA 1999. Recent cultural finds are directly associated with the neighboring residential and light industrial developments.

2.4.1) CONCLUSION

Assessment of the approximate 38ha area incorporating the proposed 19ha area on which the proposed development, the construction of commercial offices, retail space and associated infrastructure to be located on Erf 9582, Sweetwaters, King Williams Town, will be centered yielded no cultural heritage resources inclusive of archaeological deposits / sites, built structures older than 60 years, sites of cultural significance associated with oral histories, burial grounds and graves, graves of victims of conflict and cultural landscapes or viewsapes as defined and protected by the NHRA 1999.

3) RECOMMENDATIONS

The proposed development, the construction of commercial offices, retail space and associated infrastructure to be constructed on Erf 9582, Sweetwaters, King Williams Town, Eastern Cape, South Africa, will not impact on any identified cultural heritage resources as defined and protected by the NHRA 1999.

✂ Recommendations: It is recommended that, with reference to cultural heritage compliance as per the requirements of the NHRA 1999, the development proceeds as applied for without the developer having to comply with further archaeological and cultural heritage compliance requirements.

Note: Should any archaeological or cultural heritage resources as defined and protected by the NHRA 1999 be identified during the course of development the developer should immediately cease operation in the immediate vicinity and report the find to SAHRA.
