

APPENDIX 5

PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE STUDY AREA: CULCUTTA 294KU

Fig. 1: Study area as seen from South to North.

Fig. 2: Study area as seen from East to West.

Fig. 3: Study area as seen from West to East.

Fig. 4: Study area as seen from North to South.

Fig. 5: Rough clay potsherds of recent historic times. These were possibly used by the inhabitants of the study area before they were moved in 1967.

Fig 6: A lower grinder of recent historic times. This item was also possibly used by the inhabitants of the study area before they were moved in 1967.

Fig. 7: Mr. TJ Mkhonto suspects that there is a grave in this area. The grave was however not located.

Fig. 8: Extensive dumping of refuse takes place in the eastern section.

Fig. 9: An excavated section on the entire northern section for a water pipe to a cultural village.

Fig. 10: A small hole reveals shallow sandy soils.