

Fig. 8: View of study area from the Pilgrim's Pass, indicated by the arrows.

SOUTHERN SECTION OF STUDY AREA:

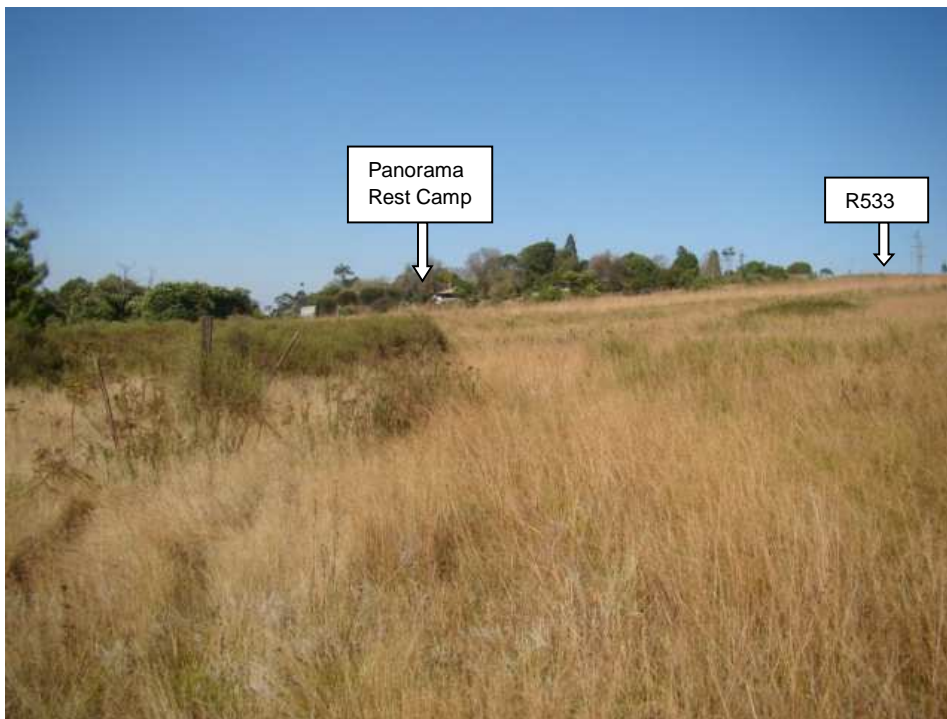

Fig. 9: View of the southern section facing south toward the Panorama Rest Camp.

Fig. 10: The edge of the escarpment is covered with fynbos in the foreground.

Fig. 11: View of the western (left) and northern (opposite of the gorge on right) sections of the study area.

Fig. 12: View towards the R533 from the centre of the southern section.

Fig. 13: The centre of the southern section is disturbed by access roads from the R533, to the informal trading area and the Edge Bar.

NORTHERN SECTION OF STUDY AREA:

Fig. 14: The thin strip on the opposite side of the gorge, indicated by the arrows, forms the northern section of the study area (See Appendix 5).

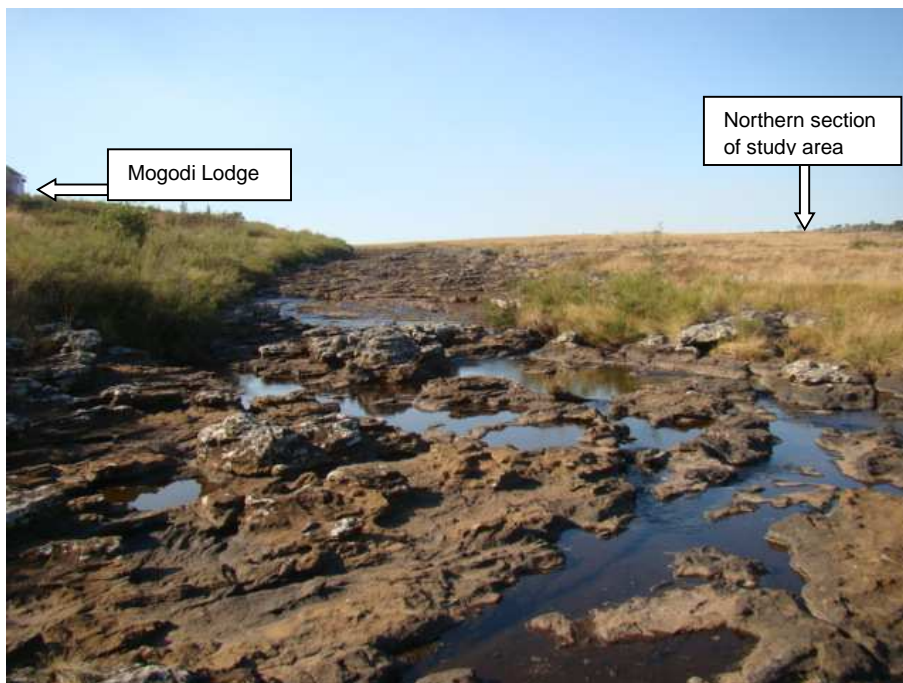

Fig. 15: The stream above the waterfall. The northern section of the study area is situated towards the right of the stream, Mogodi Lodge is on the left.

Fig. 16: The northern section consists of natural grassland.

Fig. 17: The northern section of the study area is a thin strip along the escarpment.