

APPENDIX 1: PHOTOGRAPHS OF SPRINGBOKKLAAGTE: STUDY AREA

Fig. 1: The study area and Sikhululiwe Village is indicated by the arrow.

Fig. 2: The access road to the waste transfer site starts at this point where it enters the village.

Fig. 3: The access road is roughly where the vehicle tracks can be seen. The graveyard is visible in the background.

Fig. 4: Two graves are marked with headstones.

Fig. 5: The graveyard is fenced in and access to the graves are easy.

Fig. 6: The study area facing west. Visibility was excellent.

Fig. 7: The study area facing south. Visibility was excellent.

Fig. 8: The area is sloping towards a drainage line in the south. The drainage line and dam fall outside the study area. Visibility was excellent.

Fig. 9: The access road facing towards the village in the east. The fenced graveyard is visible on the left (see arrow).

Fig. 10: The study area facing north. The fenced graveyard is visible. Visibility was excellent.