

APPENDIX 2:

Photographs of the study area

SECTION A: Fig. 5: General view of Section A with power lines on western border.

Fig. 6: View of Section A, with cattle tracks visible and operational mine towards the east.

Fig. 7: Northern boundary of Section A. Radio mast visible and Power lines next to the R544.

SECTION B:

Fig. 8: Eastern section of Section B in bluegum plantation. Dumping visible in this section.

Fig. 9: Light green sections visible of disturbed agricultural lands.

SECTION C

Fig. 10: General view of section C from rocky area towards the western boundary (see power lines).

SECTION D

Fig. 11: General view of section D towards the north. Smallholdings are situated at the trees.

Fig. 12: General view of section D towards the south. The R544 is next to the power lines

SECTION E

Fig. 13: Section E slopes down towards the Blesbokspruit.

Fig. 14: Ester Mabena's homestead next to the Blesbokspruit in section E. Small rocky outcrop visible behind the houses.

Fig. 15: Section E slopes down towards the catchment dam in the east.

Fig. 16: The graveyard in the bluegum plantation in the eastern section of E.

Fig. 17: Example of an unmarked grave.

Fig. 18: Unmarked grave.

Fig. 19: Some grave stones were hand made.