

SECTIONS 13, 14: Recent (R) settlement, on or near area marked as “Rifle Range”.

Fig. 47: A general view from west (Mashishing township) to east (Lydenburg town).

Fig. 48: Upper grinders and a broken lower grinder.

Fig. 49: Rifle Range: Many trenches associated with a recent rifle range were seen in this section.

Fig. 50: Some of the recent trenches are overgrown with Kikuyu grass.

Fig. 51: Section 14: A recent settlement (R1). Straight stone foundations (disturbed).

Fig. 52: A recent foundation (R2) consists of a straight stone foundation of a recent nature. An informal settlement is currently established in this section.

Fig. 53: R 2: Another recent stone foundation.

Fig. 54: R3: This recent concrete strip across a road.

Fig. 55: A broken lower grinder.

Fig. 56: A recent stone foundation (square), (R4).

Fig. 57: A foundation for a recent building (R4).

Fig. 58: A lot of building rubble is to be seen in this section.

Fig. 59: A square stone foundation (RF).

Fig. 60: The view from north west to south (following the power lines) and east (Lydenburg).

Fig. 61: Some potsherds were observed in this section (Section 19).

Fig. 62: Indistinct circular stone wall (Section 20).

Fig. 63: Rectangular foundation associated with possible white farmer communities (H - section 21).

Fig. 64: Straight foundation close to the feature above (H - section 21).

Fig. 65: Another stone foundation associated with white farmer communities (H - section 21).