

SOUTHERN SECTION OF PROPERTY:

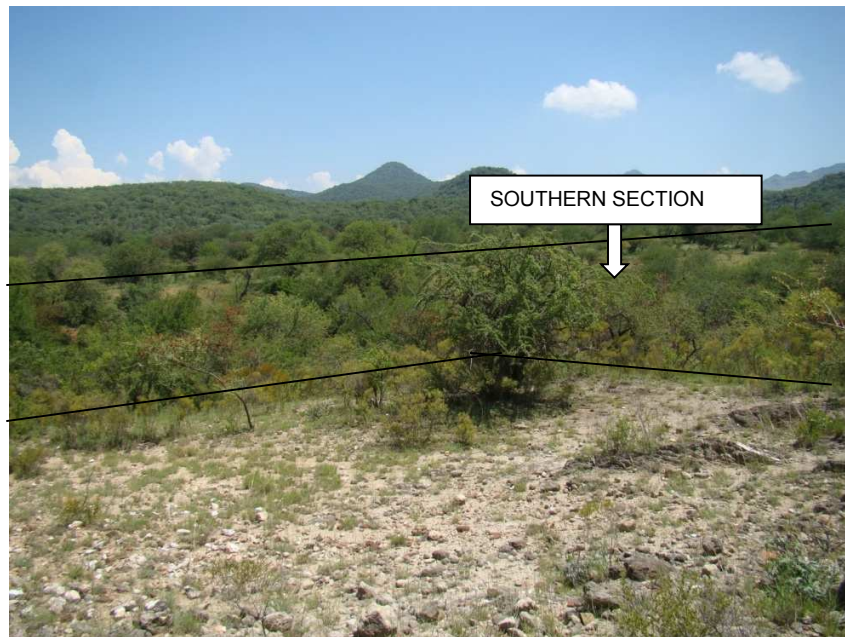

Fig. 38: View of the southern section. The foreground is in the northern section, the Tshipapedi drainage is between the northern and southern sections.

Fig. 39: A general view of the southern section. The area was flat and open and visibility was good.

Fig. 40: Many upper grinders were found in the southern section.

Fig. 41: Remains of potsherds were also identified in the southern section.

Fig. 42: The entire southern section has visible remains of recent square foundations. Most of the stones are scattered and disturbed.

Fig. 43: Square foundation which is deteriorated, but still partly visible.

Fig. 44: Recent bottles and glass were found in the southern section.

Fig. 45: Foundation stones of a recent structure.

Fig. 46: A broken lower grinder.

Fig. 47: Some of the many upper grinders which were found in the southern section.

Fig. 48: Foundation stones in the southern section.

Fig. 49: The access road has disturbed one of the recent foundations.

Fig. 50: Three broken upper grinders.

Fig. 51: Row of stones of a recent foundation.