

NATIONAL MONUMENTS COUNCIL SURVEYING FORM

Survey of HOWICK Date recorded Sept. 195
 Property Name CENOTAPH
 Address - MAIN STR. CUV FALLS DRIVE

Block	Site
Page	of
Film no. H1	Neg no. 31

Erf No. Portion Townlands
 Zoning Public Open Space
 Architect/Builder
 Construction Date 1922
 Building style Egyptian Revival
 Building type Cenotaph
 Present use Cenotaph
 Occupied (yes/no) no
 Condition (good, fair, poor, derelict) good.

Description... Battered and truncated tower-like structure (pylon) of semi-dressed bluestone halfround tuck pointed with plinth & projecting eaves and banded beltcourse and coved cornice of dressed sandstone.

Construction: additional plaque in centre; WW2
 Alterations (with dates) aligned E-W; entr marked by a row of 4 pillars.
 Site Features on island betw Agriculture Hall & Main St.
 Environmental Context In memory of those patriots of Lions River Division who sacrificed their lives in the Great War 1914-18. "Their Name liveth for Evermore" Also: Roll of Honour 1939-45.
 History Inscriptions.

Evaluation

Outstanding Importance
 Significant Contributing Irrelevant
 Intrusive
 Vacant/ Undeveloped

Significance (cross where relevant)

Historical
 Associated with historic person or group
 Associated with historic event or activity

Scientific/Technical
 Example of industrial, technical or engineering development
 New, rare or experimental building techniques
 Important to archaeology, palaeontology, geology or biology

Cultural /Social/Educational
 Associated with religious, social, economic or political activity
 Illustrates an historical period

Architectural/Aesthetic
 Important example of a building type
 Important example of a style or period
 Fine details, workmanship or aesthetics
 Work of a major architect or builder

Environmental
 Landmark in town of city
 Contributes to character of neighbourhood or area
 Contributes to character of street or square
 Part of an important group of buildings

Motivation and Statement of Significance architectural significance and intrinsic value as a memorial of commemoration.

Recorded by W.P.