Permission is hereby given to Mr Henk Steyn of PGS Heritage in accordance with the application received for the exhumation and re-interment of six (6) graves of heritage importance from the Farm Swartekoppen 302, Coega

The Permit is subject to the following conditions:

1. That this permit is not transferable. If the permit holder is not to be present on the site at all times, then the ECPHRA must be provided with the names and qualifications of the authorised representatives;
2. That the permit is issued strictly for exhumation and re-interment
3. That no deviation will be permitted without the prior written approval by ECPHRA. In the event of a proposed deviation, a written motivation must be submitted to the ECPHRA for consideration;
4. Copies of any papers compiled or published as a result of the work conducted or the findings made must be provided to ECPHRA;
5. If a published report has not appeared within three years of the lapsing of this permit, the report required in terms of the permit will be made available to researchers on request;
6. Where material collected at the sites is to be exported to any country for research or other purposes, a permit must be obtained from SAHRA to do so before the material is exported.
7. ECPHRA shall not be liable for any losses, damages or injuries to persons or properties as a result of any activities in connection with this permit.
8. It is the responsibility of the permit holder to obtain permission from the landowner for each visit, and conditions of access imposed by the landowner must be observed.
9. It is the responsibility of the permit holder to fill in excavations and protect sites during and after excavation to the satisfaction of the heritage authority and the landowner.
10. That ECPHRA reserves the right to inspect the sites at any time and to cancel this permit upon notice to the permit holder;
11. This permit is subject to a general appeal and may be suspended should an appeal against the decisions be received by ECPHRA within 14 days from the date of the permit. ECPHRA may not be held responsible for any costs or losses incurred in the event of the suspension or retraction of this permit.

The issuing of this permit does not exempt the applicant from compliance with any other law, where applicable.

The permit is valid from the September 2013 to September 2014
