Site: Site 3 Lafarge mine, Polokwane (Site 3 Lafarge, Site 7 Lafarge, Site 8 Lafarge, Site 9 Lafarge) approximately at 23° 57' 26.82" S, 29° 29' 58.38" E

This permit is issued for the recovery of human remains and cultural material at Sites 3, 7, 8 and 9 on Farm Weltevreden 746 LS.

1. If the permit holder is not to be present on the site at all times then the heritage authority must be provided with the names and qualifications of the authorised representatives.
2. Adequate recording methods as specified in the Regulations and Guidelines pertaining to the National Heritage Resources Act must be employed. Note that the position of all excavations and objects collected must be marked on a plan of site.
3. This permit also allows for the collection of human fragments identified at Site 5.
4. A standard site record form and the cultural remains may be lodged temporarily with the Ditsong Museum in Pretoria, however, within the expiration of this permit, the record form and the cultural remains must be moved to a suitable repository in the Limpopo Province.
5. The exhumed human remains may temporarily be housed at the Ditsong Museum in Pretoria, however after the necessary forensic analyses have been undertaken, and within the time limit of this permit, the human remains must be re-buried in a suitable location chosen in collaboration with the heritage agency.
6. A final report on the results of the excavations and analyses must be submitted to the heritage authority issuing this permit on or before the 30th of November 2013.
7. Reprints of all published papers or copies of theses and/or reports resulting from this work must be lodged with the heritage authority.
8. If a published report has not appeared within three years of the lapsing of this permit, the report required in terms of the permit will be made available to researchers on request.
9. It is the responsibility of the permit holder to obtain permission from the landowner for each visit, and conditions of access imposed by the landowner must be observed.
10. It is the responsibility of the permit holder to fill in excavations and protect sites during and after excavation to the satisfaction of the heritage authority and the landowner.
11. The heritage authority shall not be liable for any losses, damages or injuries to persons or properties as a result of any activities in connection with this permit.
