PERMIT: Test Excavation

In terms of Section 36(3) of the National Heritage Resources Act (Act 25 of 1999)

Permit Holder: Prof. Anton van Vollenhoven

Archaetnos Culture & Cultural Resource Consultants

Site: SCAW Metals Grave site - Germiston (Graves at SCAW Metals Pty Ltd)

Archaetnos cc was appointed by Scaw Metals to conduct heritage assessment of the grave yard located inside Scaw Metals' premises in Germiston, Gauteng Province. The grave site is closer to the area earmarked for the development of waste drainage. Therefore, test excavations needs to be done in order to establish whether there are more graves in the area. This will also assist to determine the extent of the grave site so that it can be preserved in situ when development commences.

Conditions:

1. If the permit holder is not to be present on the site at all times then the heritage authority must be provided with the names and qualifications of the authorised representatives.
2. Adequate recording methods as specified in the Regulations and Guidelines pertaining to the National Heritage Resources Act must be employed. Note that the position of all excavations and objects collected must be marked on a plan of site.
3. A standard site record form must be lodged on SAHRIS.
4. If human remains are uncovered during test excavations, the activity must stop until SAHRA BGG Unit has issued a relocation permit.
5. Human remains must at all times be handled with respect and graves should not be disturbed except where unavoidable. The consultation procedures as indicated in the Regulations and the National Heritage Resources Act must be observed as appropriate. The recommendations for removal of graves and exhumations and for re-burial stipulated in SAHRA's Policy 'What to do when graves are uncovered', section 3, must be observed as far as possible.
6. A permit report is due by 31 August 2018.
7. If a published report has not appeared within three years of the lapsing of this permit, the report required in terms of the permit will be made available to researchers on request.
