Conditions:

- This permit is for the recording and controlled statistical sampling of site SA02 on Farm Nooitgedacht (Woon) 469.
- If the permit holders are not to be present on the site at all times then the heritage authority must be provided with the names and qualifications of the authorised representatives.
- Adequate recording methods as specified in the Regulations and Guidelines pertaining to the National Heritage Resources Act must be employed. Note that the position of all excavations and objects collected must be marked on a plan of site.
- A standard site record form must be lodged with the McGregor Museum in Kimberley.
- All archaeological material collected, as well as field notes and records, will be curated by the McGregor Museum in Kimberley. Temporary storage may be allowed at the Museum for Anthropology and Archaeology of the University of South Africa while analyses are undertaken.
- A final report on the results of the recording, collection and analyses must be submitted to SAHRA on or before the 31st of January 2014.
- Reprints of all published papers or copies of theses and/or reports resulting from this work must be lodged with the heritage authority.
- If a published report has not appeared within three years of the lapsing of this permit, the report required in terms of the permit will be made available to researchers on request.
- It is the responsibility of the permit holder to obtain permission from the landowner for each visit, and conditions of access imposed by the landowner must be observed.
- It is the responsibility of the permit holder to fill in excavations and protect sites during and after excavation to the satisfaction of the heritage authority and the landowner.
- The heritage authority shall not be liable for any losses, damages or injuries to persons or properties as a result of any activities in connection with this permit.
- The heritage authority reserves the right to cancel this permit by notice to the permit holder.

This permit is valid from 21/12/2012 to 31/01/2014.
